Latest from the Front.

Our losses in the fighting before Petersburg—The Rebels refuse a flag of truce both to Gen. Grant and Gen. Butler. They also refuse to let Richmond papers come into our lines—Some Miscellaneous Thought to be Brewing.

We have information from the Army of the Potomac as late as 9 o'clock on Sunday night. The exact losses in the battle of Saturday have not yet been officially ascertained, but as near as can be gathered will foot up about 2,500, not including the missing.

In the hospital of the 10th corps, the first division has 306; the second, 307; the third, 341; the fourth, (colored,) 696; besides a considerable number lying on the field between the lines, and who cannot be got off.

The 18th corps lost about 300, while Turner's division, of the 10th, had nearly 400 killed and wounded.

A flag of truce was sent out to the enemy on Sunday, for the purpose of getting the remainder of the wounded off the field, but it was refused—the reason not being given.

General Butler also sent a flag from his lines, which was likewise refused; the officer giving no reason except his orders, which were compulsory, not to accept a flag under any circumstances. They also refuse to exchange papers, the officers keeping a vigilant watch over the privates to prevent their doing so. The latter are always willing and anxious to exchange.

There must be some good reason for all this, and many believe that their line is very weak while others think they have some extensive move on foot, and are afraid of it becoming known to the enemy.

The raid into Pennsylvania may be the reason, and they wish to keep it as quiet as possible. All the wounded that have been brought in are being well cared for, the medical arrangements being ample.

The lines of the two armies are about the same as before the battle, and picket firing has been constantly kept up since.

A later dispatch, of seven a. m. of the 1st, says a flag of truce was then prevailing, and parties had gone out to bury the dead and bring off the wounded. The numbers reported as being quite large.

Another Big Scare. Rebel Guerrillas Make their Appearance near Rockville—Story of a Scary Ordeal.

Last night, about eight o'clock, some two hundred rebel guerrillas, supposed to be of Mosely's command, made their appearance at a point three miles above Rockville, having crossed the river at Nolan's Ferry.

Parties living in the vicinity, imagining that these guerrillas were the advance guard of a large invading force, immediately fled, and in the confusion, many of the families fled in the direction for a short time. Troops were sent from here to intercept the rebels, but they were nowhere to be found, having gone back to the Virginia side.

A panicky orderly came hurrying in to headquarters at a late hour last night from Fort Reno, and reported that the rebels in large force were advancing in the direction of Tenallytown.

Due investigation showed that the report had no foundation whatever.

A CORRECTION.—Our neighbors of the Intelligencer, in quoting from our full accounts of the assault upon Petersburg, speak of them as "semi-official." To prevent misapprehension, it is proper to state that, while our reports of the affair were obtained from eye-witnesses, they were in no sense official or semi-official.

From Hudson Taylor, 331 Pa. avenue, the Washington agent for Leonard Scott & Co.'s publications of leading European Magazines, we have Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine for July.

PERSONAL.—Brig. Gen. Tolbert, commander of a cavalry division in the U. S. army, arrived here this morning from the front, on board the mail steamer Dictator.

NEW YORK STOCK LIST. [By the People's Line—Office 511 Ninth street.]

NEW YORK. Aug. 20. U. S. 5 1/2, coupon 6 1/2, 105 1/2; U. S. 5 1/2, 107 1/2; U. S. 5 1/2, 107 1/2; Erie, 119 1/2; Hudson River, 129 1/2; Harlem, 130 1/2; Erie, 119 1/2; Michigan Central, 137 1/2; Michigan Southern, 137 1/2; Illinois Central, 137 1/2; Cleveland and Pittsburgh, 119 1/2; Cleveland and Toledo, 114 1/2; Chicago and Rock Island, 115 1/2; Milwaukee and Prairie du Chien, 67 1/2; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 67 1/2; Union Pacific, 67 1/2; Chicago and Northwestern, 67 1/2; Quicksilver, 79 1/2.

FINANCIAL.—The New York Commercial Advertiser of yesterday evening says: Stocks were quiet this morning, and the general movement was anticipated as being favorable in the late rapid advance.

Governments were weak, in sympathy with the temporary depression of the market rather than from any real lack of confidence, though favorable in the morning, had assumed a doubtful aspect at noon.

The miscellaneous list was strong, but railroad showed a general decline of 1/4, compared with the closing price of Saturday's board.

The money market is without material change. There is a steady supply from private lenders, while the banks are on a policy of caution. All the wants of the street are met readily at seven per cent, and in a very few exceptional instances at six per cent. The demand from brokers is apparently active enough to keep up the rate. Advancement of the banks would be very freely. The bank statement shows the present policy of the banks in respect of loans.

The stock market, as might be expected, shows a partial reaction from the advance of the last few days. The rise has been remarkably vigorous, and attended with none of the symptoms of lack of confidence that have prevailed for so many weeks. It seems to be taken for granted that railroad securities are below their real value, and this impression is bringing a large number of buyers into the market, who have not touched stocks since April last. The brokers are disposed to favor the movement by affording every possible facility to operators, and margins are given with more liberality than at any time since the late advance.

During the last fourteen days will average about $6 per share on the railroad list. The "fancy" list also shows a similar rise.

Gold opened at 251, and on sensation rumors of military reverses before Petersburg, rose to 257 1/2. Exchange opened at 75, and closed at 75 1/2. For money on the ground, 100 days, 75 1/2. The loan market is rather more active at 7 per cent. There is, however, no stringency, and borrowers on commercial securities are passing readily at 7 1/2 per cent.

The stock market opened dull and closed with a drooping tendency. Government securities are lower in consequence of reports that Mr. Freeman had about to put on the market a six per cent. gold bearing loan. State stocks are quiet, railroad bonds firm, and stock strong, mining shares improving and railroad shares irregular.

THE PUBLIC ARE INFORMED THAT Market will be held TO-MORROW (Wednesday) EVENING, August 24, at Center Market, between 10th and 11th streets, at 6 o'clock, by HENRY LYLES, C. C. Market. [Intel. and Chron. copy.] an 2-2t

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try the celebrated which are now recommended by the highest medical authorities, and warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure, and must supersede all other tonics where a healthy, gentle stimulant is required.

They purify, strengthen and invigorate. They create a healthy appetite. They are an antidote to a change of water and diet. They overcome effects of dissipation and late hours. They strengthen the system and enliven the mind. They prevent miasmatic and intermittent fevers. They purify the breath and acidity of the stomach. They cure Dyspepsia and Constipation. They cure Diarrhea, Cholera, and Cholera Morbus. They cure Liver Complaint and Nervous Headache. They make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya bark, wintergreen, sassafras, roots and herbs, all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix rum. For particulars, see circulars and testimonials around each bottle.

Beware of imposters. Examine every bottle. See that it has D. S. Barnes' signature on our private U. S. Stamp over the cork, with plantation scene, and our side label, see that our bottle is not refilled with spurious and deleterious stuff. We defy any person to match the taste or character of our goods. Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters by the gallon or in bulk, is an imposter. We sell only in our log cabin bottle. Any person imitating this bottle, or selling any other material therein, whether called Plantation Bitters or not, is a criminal under the U. S. Law, and will be prosecuted by us. We already have our eye on every party getting themselves into close quarters. The demand for Drake's Plantation Bitters from ladies, clergymen, merchants, &c., is perfectly incredible. The simple trial of a bottle is the evidence we present of their worth and superiority. They are sold by all respectable druggists, grocers, physicians, hotels, saloons, steamboats and country stores.
